Dear Dr. Steelman:

First, allow me to inform you that I had an extensive conversation with [] who came in to see me this morning, and I think she is a most capable person. We shall look around and see if we cannot find a place for her in the organization.

Second, thanks for your letter of 27 September inclosing the letter from [] As you know, our activities are concerned with countries exterior to the United States, and, consequently, this incident seems to be more directly related to the FBI. We shall have our people try to check [] and I am forwarding your letter and [] letter to Mr. Hoover as a matter of possible interest to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Thank you very much for your interest in the Central Intelligence Agency and with best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

PERSONAL

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

The attached letter has aroused my curiosity and also an interest in knowing what might be back of its content.

Since [redacted] whom I mentioned to you a day or two ago, knows [redacted] personally, I asked her about it. She vouches for [redacted] veracity and thinks someone ought to look into the subject.

It occurred to me that your organization might possibly be interested.

Sincerely,

/s/ JRS
